Design & Visual Guidelines

Precision on open water: the visual language of Kayak Strategic Advisors.

VERSION 1.0 OCTOBER 2026 FOR DESIGNERS, AGENCIES AND PRODUCT TEAMS

Contents

Ten chapters, from first principles to finished rooms and screens. Read chapters 1 to 3 before designing anything; use the rest as a reference while you work.

01 Principles & ingredients

The character, the five principles and the core visual ingredients.

- Design principles 05
- Core visual ingredients 06
- Colour in proportion 07
- Typography in layout 08

02 Shape grammar

Every shape we draw comes from the logo's own geometry.

- Geometry from the logo 10

THE DESIGN IDEA

Precision on open water.

Two paddlers in a kayak cross rough water by keeping a disciplined rhythm and a shared heading. Every design decision at Kayak should feel the same way: calm, exact and moving with intent.

We are a boutique, so our work should feel considered rather than produced. Fewer elements, finer detail, generous space, and one point of saffron where the client should look.

58°
The paddle angle. Every diagonal we draw.

4%
The split. The gap that keeps two strokes distinct.

One saffron accent per view.

01

Principles & ingredients

The character we design for, the five principles behind every decision, and the ingredients we cook with.

05 Design principles

06 Core visual ingredients

07 Colour in proportion

08 Typography in layout

Five design principles

Boutique, premium, strategically thought: these five principles turn those words into decisions you can check.

The test. Before anything leaves the studio, ask: would a senior partner be proud to put it in front of a board?

01

Calm before clever

Start with space and a clear hierarchy. Remove an element before adding one. A page should feel unhurried even when it is dense with data.

02

One beacon

Each view has one point of Beacon Saffron, the thing we want the client to see first: the key number, the action, the turning point.

03

Drawn from the craft

Angles, splits and blades come from the logo. Never import shapes, icons or textures that do not share its geometry.

04

Exact, then expressive

Grid, baseline and alignment come first. Expression lives in the details: a blade, a saffron rule, a finely set number.

05

Evidence on show

We advise on facts. Show the source, the scale and the method. Data is drawn honestly and labelled in plain words.

Core visual ingredients

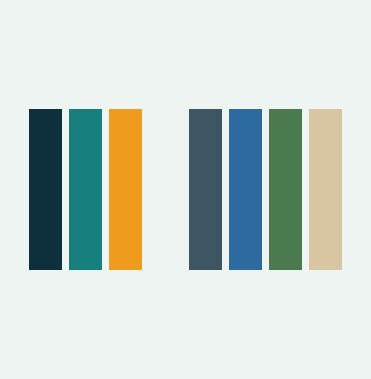
Ten ingredients make every Kayak piece. Most layouts use four or five of them; none uses all ten at once.

01 Logo & identifier

The KAYAK wordmark and the Confluence Y. The identifier signs off every layout.

02 Monogram

KSA for seals, favicons, avatars and premium moments.



03 Colour

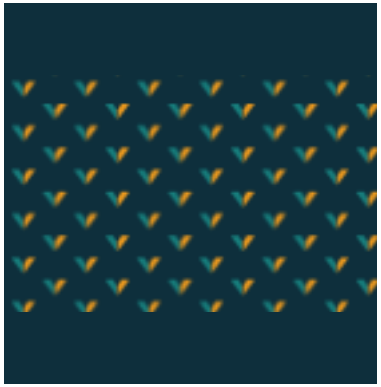
Deep Current and Sea Mist carry the page; Open Water leads; saffron points.

04 Typography

Archivo for structure and numbers; Source Serif 4 for the voice.

05 Shape grammar

Blades, splits, chevrons and 58° diagonals, all taken from the logo.



06 Patterns

Eleven seamless patterns from the identifier, monogram and favicon.

07 Iconography

48 service icons and 2,160 industry icons on one 24 px grid.

08 Data & UI

A chart and interface system with one saffron highlight.

09 Navigator's marks

Waypoints, routes and soundings to annotate and guide.

10 Imagery

Natural light, real work, water as metaphor, treated with restraint.

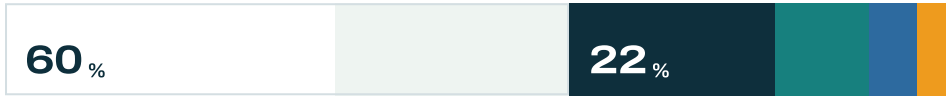
Colour in proportion

A Kayak page is mostly quiet: paper, mist and ink. Teal leads the eye, and one small point of saffron says where to look.

PROPORTION

Light composition

Reports, proposals, web, most slides



White + Mist 60% · Deep Current 22% · Open Water 10% · Supporting 5% · Saffron 3%

Dark composition

Openers, covers, keynotes, dark UI

Deep Current 62% · Undertow 15% · White type 12% · Teal on dark 8% · Saffron 3%

Secondary colours

Cluster coding, categories and states. Small areas only; never the lead colour of a page.

Tertiary colours

Tints and ramps for scales, heat maps and UI states. Inside charts, tables and UI only.

THE SAFFRON RULE

One beacon per view: the key figure, the action or the turning point. Never body text on white (2.3:1). As type, saffron lives only on Deep Current.

Shape grammar

Every angle, gap and edge in our graphics comes from the logo. Learn the geometry once and the whole system draws itself.

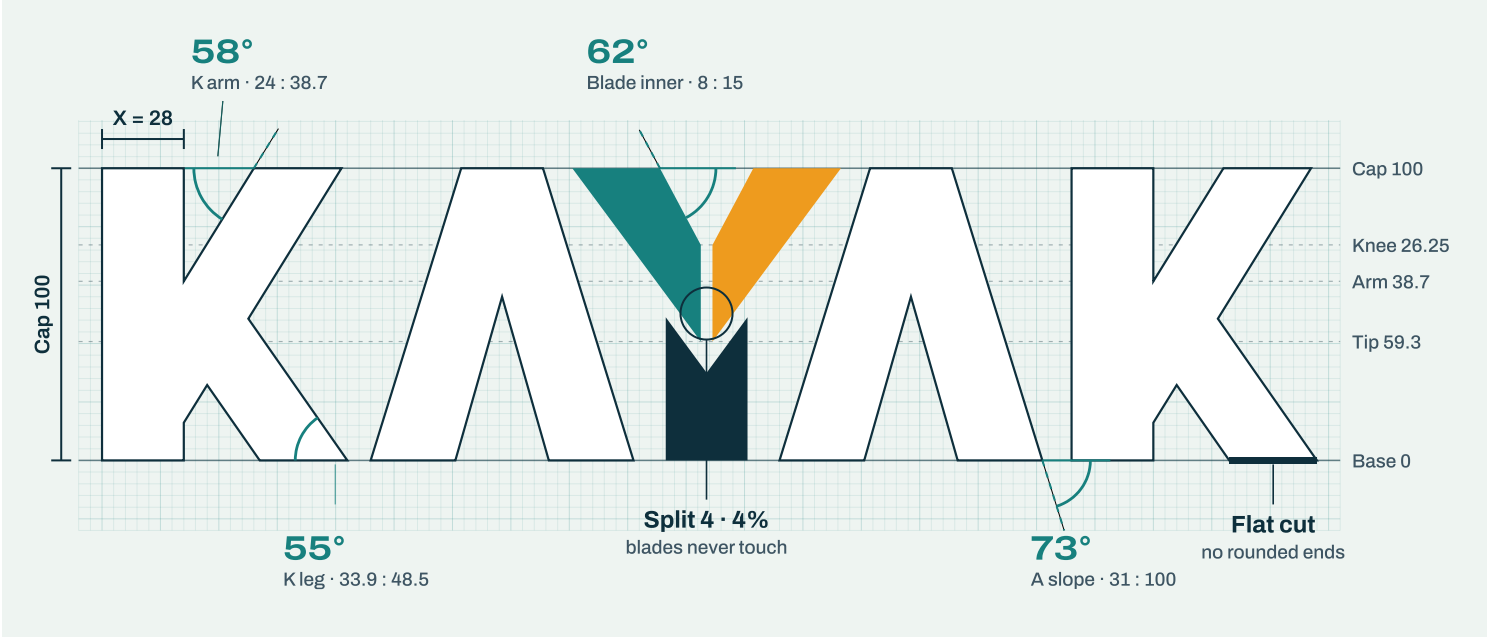
10 Geometry from the logo

11 The shape vocabulary

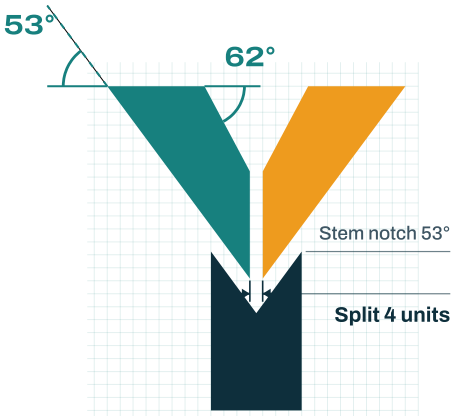
12 Grammar rules

Geometry from the logo

We did not invent a graphic language. We measured the one already in the wordmark and wrote it down.



IDENTIFIER DETAIL

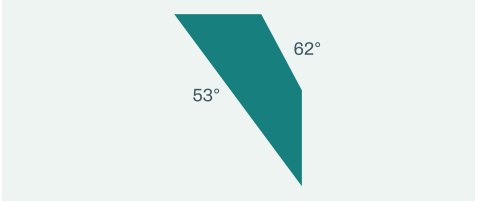


Every edge is a straight cut. The stem notch repeats the blade's outer angle.

	CONSTANT	VALUE	SOURCE IN THE LOGO	USED FOR
	K-arm angle	58°	24 : 38.7, the K's arms	K-lattice pattern, diagonal crops, annotation leaders
	K-leg angle	55°	33.9 : 48.5, the K's lower leg	Chevron dividers, waypoint arrows
	Blade inner edge	62°	14 : 26.25 = 8 : 15	Wake lines, hairline overlays, image crop masks
	Blade outer edge	53°	44 : 59.3; repeated in the stem notch	Chevron wake, badge cuts, blade crops
	A slope	73°	31 : 100, both A diagonals	Delta pattern, trapezoid frames, cover bands
	The split	4 units	4% of cap height, between the blades	Paired rules, pinstripe, gaps between converging strokes
	X unit	28 units	Width of the K upright	Clear space 2X, logo margins, minimum gaps
	Stroke scale	0.5 · 1.5 · 2 · 3	Hairline to bar, from print to screen	Pattern hairlines, rules, icons (2 px), emphasis bars

The shape vocabulary

Eight primitives, each cut from the logo. Everything we draw, from a seal to a loading state, is a sentence made of these words.



01 Blade

One arm of the Confluence Y. Edges at 53° and 62°, cut flat.

Use: Crops, cover bands, section markers

02 Chevron

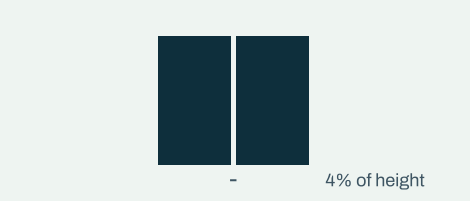
Both blades as strokes: the confluence of two currents.

Use: Openers, progress, dividers

03 Stem

The Y's base with its 53° notch, cut square.

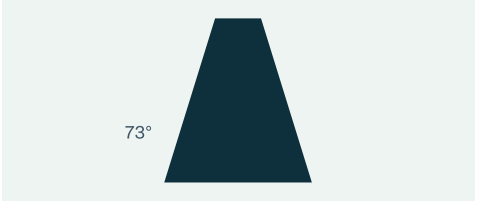
Use: Anchors, list markers, vertical rules



04 Split

The 4% gap between the blades, kept between any pair.

Use: Paired rules, pinstripe, gutters



05 Delta

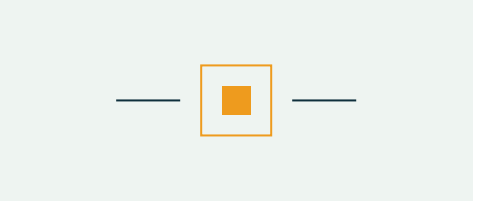
The A as a solid trapezoid on its 73° slopes.

Use: Delta pattern, tabs, callouts

06 Wake line

A hairline on the blade's 62° inner edge.

Use: Overlays, textures, loading shimmer



07 Beacon

A saffron square with a hairline halo: one per view.

Use: Key figure, active state, waypoint

08 Frame

Four corner marks with flat ends, 2 px or 1 pt.

Use: Figures, quotes, image focus

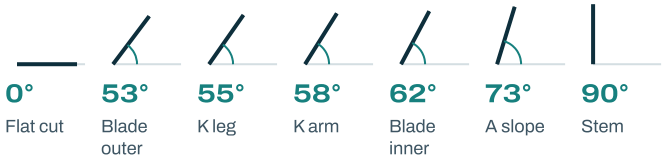
Grammar rules

A short grammar keeps the shapes speaking with one voice. If a shape breaks a rule here, it is not a Kayak shape.

COMBINING SHAPES



01 Use only angles from the set, plus 0° and 90°. Never rotate a shape onto a new angle.

02 No curves, except the S current (from the monogram) and data lines in charts.

03 Cut every end flat. No round caps, bevels or tapered tips.

04 Keep the split at 4% of the shape's height wherever two forms converge.

05 Scale shapes whole. Never stretch, skew, outline or add shadows.

06 One beacon per composition. Everything else is ink, teal or tint.

CORNER RADIUS

0	Brand graphics, print, patterns, photographs, charts
2	Checkboxes
4	Buttons, inputs, tooltips, tags
8	Cards and menus
12	Modals, sheets, mobile cards
999	Pills and avatars

Radius is a UI property only. Brand shapes stay square at every size.

STROKE WEIGHT SCALE

Hairline 0.5 pt · 1 px

Table rules, gridlines, wake lines, print frames

Fine 1 pt · 1.5 px

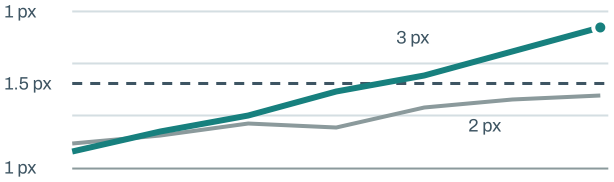
Corner marks, dividers, benchmark lines in print

Regular 1.5 pt · 2 px

Icons on the 24 grid, chart lines, focus rings

Strong 2 pt · 3 px

Highlighted series, active navigation bar



Three weights per exhibit, at most.

DO AND DON'T

- ✓ Flat cuts on every end
- ✗ Rounded or softened ends
- ✓ Split held at 4%
- ✗ Blades touching or overlapping
- ✓ Hairlines on 62°
- ✗ Angles outside the set (45°)
- ✓ One beacon per view
- ✗ Saffron used to decorate

03

Layout rhythm

Calm is built, not found. An 8-point unit, firm grids and a deliberate pace give every page room to think.

14 The 8-point system

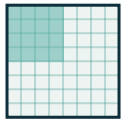
15 Grids by format

16 Compositions & pacing

The 8-point system

One unit sets every margin, gap and line. When spacing comes from a scale, pages feel calm without anyone noticing why.

BASE UNIT & SCALE

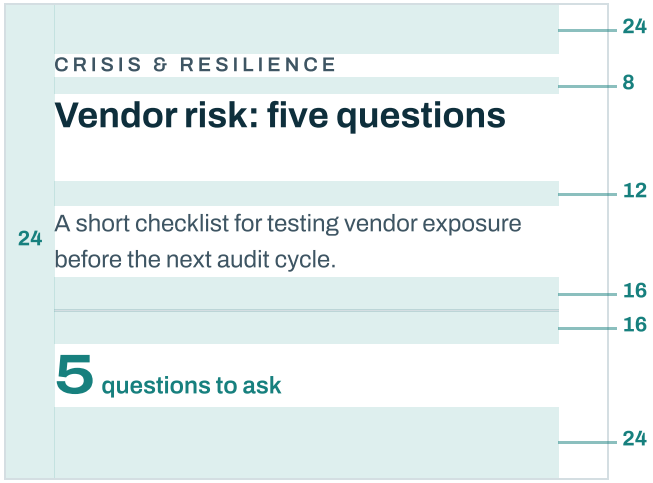


8 px base

4 px half-step for icons and dense UI. Print runs the same scale in points on a 4 pt sub-grid.

space-1	4	Icon to label, tight pairs
space-2	8	Inside components
space-3	12	Related items in a list
space-4	16	Component padding, gutters
space-5	24	Card padding, web gutters
space-6	32	Between groups
space-7	48	Between sections
space-8	64	Section breaks on web
space-9	96	Hero and opener space

VERTICAL RHYTHM



Why the middle matters

Text sits on a 24 px baseline; images, rules and headings snap to the 8 px sub-grid, so columns always line up.

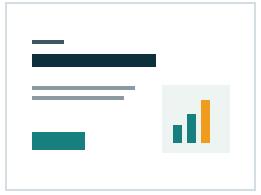
24 / 8

PROPORTION

Clear space is 2X on every side, where X is the width of the K upright. The same X sets the minimum gap between the logo and any edge, rule or image.

WHY IT FEELS CALM

Ad hoc gaps, crowded edges



Spacing from the scale

Bigger gaps between groups than within them. Space is the cheapest premium signal we have.

THE SCALE ACROSS FORMATS

Screen values in px; print in millimetres. Larger formats scale the unit, never the ratios.

ROLE	RULE	WEB 1440	MOBILE 390	SLIDE 1920	PRINT A4
Page margin	Set by the grid	64	20	128	15 mm
Gutter	Multiple of 8	24	16	40	4 mm
Card padding	space-5 on web	24	16	48	6 mm
Between sections	2× the gap within	64	48	96	12 mm

Grids by format

One logic, six canvases. Every format has a column grid with real numbers; content snaps to columns, and only images bleed.

Social square	1080 × 1080	80	6	32	8 px
Social portrait	1080 × 1350	80	6	32	8 px

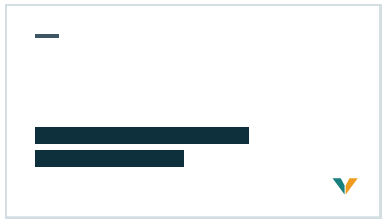
- Text and exhibits snap to columns. Images may bleed to the trim; text never does.
- An exhibit on a slide spans at least 6 of 12 columns; a sidebar spans 3.
- Gutters never shrink to fit more content. Cut the content instead.

Compositions & pacing

Five archetypes cover almost every page we make. The order we put them in is what turns a set of pages into an argument.



Open Water

Generous space and one statement. The page breathes so the idea can land.

For: Covers, chapter claims, closing thoughts

Confluence

A 50/50 split: dark claim on one side, evidence on the other.

For: Before and after, problem and answer

Current

Text left on 5 columns, exhibit right on 7. Our working page.

For: Analysis, findings, most content

Beacon

One big number in Archivo Expanded, with context in a narrow column.

For: Headline metrics, impact, savings

Delta

Three equal modules on a 4-column rhythm. One may carry the beacon.

For: Options, pillars, service lines

PACING RULES

- Open on dark, read on light, close on dark.
- Three data pages in a row at most, then a beacon or a breather.
- One opener per chapter; chapters run three to five pages.
- Change density every five to seven pages so attention resets.

04

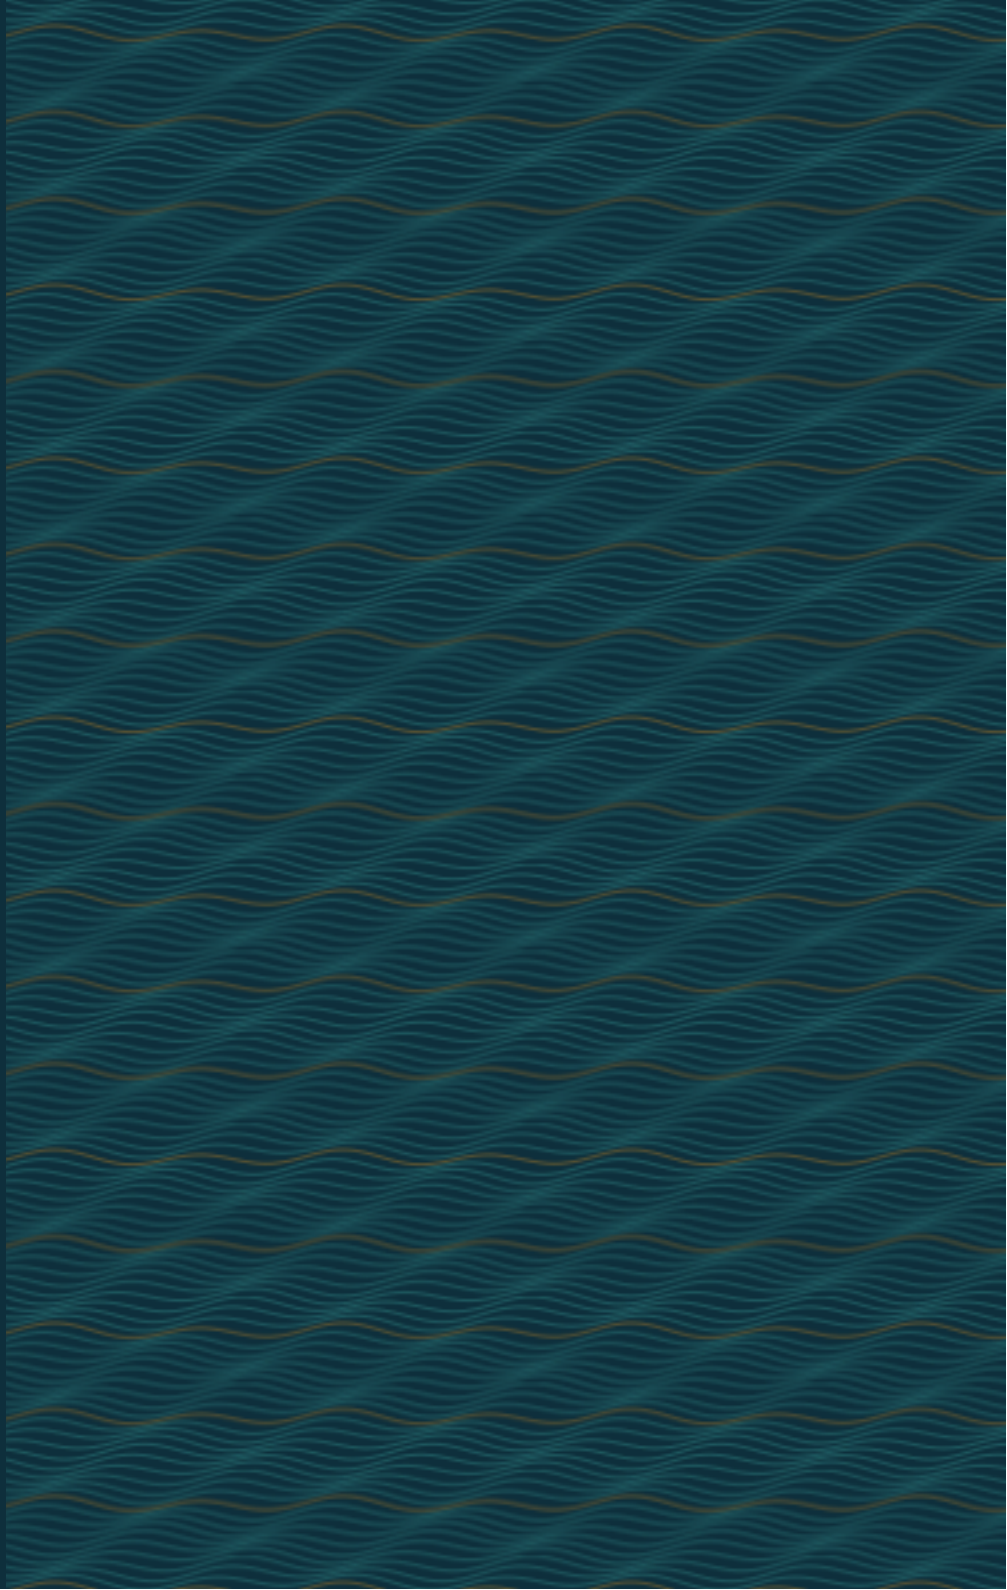
Visual approach

Real people, natural light and open water. How we choose, treat and layer images so they carry the argument quietly.

18 Imagery direction

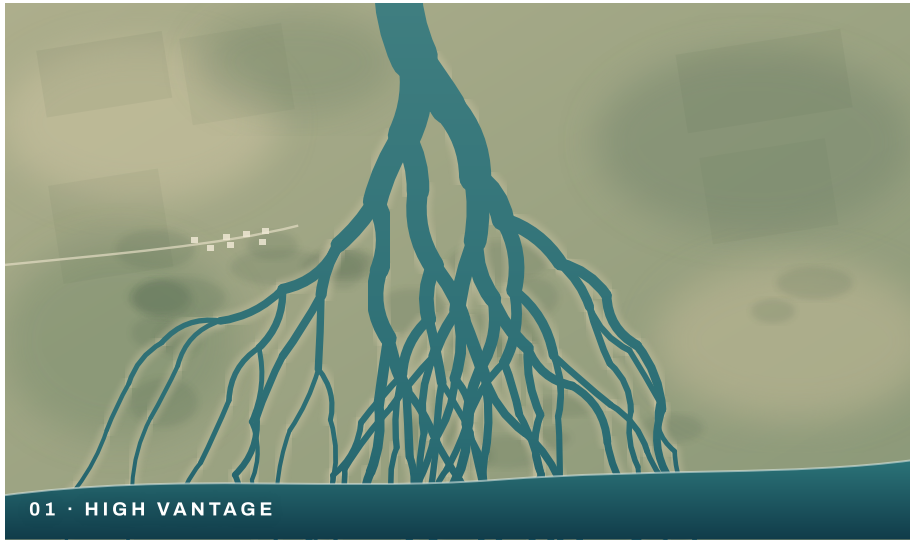
19 Image treatment

20 Surfaces, depth & texture



Imagery direction

Real work, natural light, open water. Our pictures feel observed, not staged, and always leave room to think.



Direction examples drawn as placeholders. Commission or license photography to this brief.

PRINCIPLES

- Real people at work in India: clients, teams, sites. Never models posing.
- Natural light, soft and directional. No flash, no studio sweep.
- Quiet confidence: calm faces, considered gestures, no thumbs-up.
- Water and landscape as metaphor for flow, clarity and passage.
- High vantage points that show the whole system.
- Leave a third of the frame open for type.

SUBJECTS

- Advisory at work
- Sites & operations
- Cities from above
- Rivers & deltas
- Coast & open water
- Hands & documents
- Leaders, candid

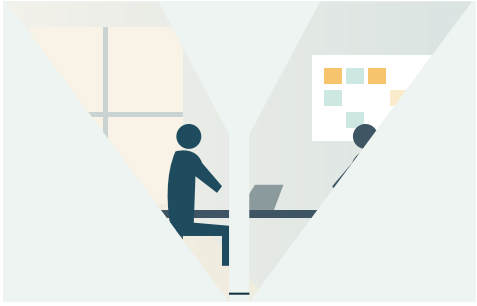
Balance across a document: one people image for every two of place or landscape.

CROP WITH THE BLADE



Covers and openers may crop an image into the two blades. Keep the 4% split open and faces clear of the cut.

AVOID

- Handshakes, chess pieces, light bulbs and other clichés
- Generic skylines that could be anywhere
- Heavy filters, HDR, vignettes, lens flare
- Stock models, forced smiles, staged pointing at screens
- Busy frames with no room for type

Image treatment

One photograph, six treatments. Use the lightest one that does the job, and never stack more than two on a single image.

01 Original

What Natural colour, lightly graded: lift shadows, cool highlights a touch.

When Default for people, places and case studies.

Never Saturation boosts, HDR, heavy contrast.

02 Deep Current duotone

What Deep Current shadows to Sea Mist highlights.

When Covers, openers, and mixed sources that must match.

Never A saffron or third tone; duotone on small thumbnails.

03 Teal monotone

What Deep Lagoon to Spray, one hue end to end.

When Backgrounds behind data or interface; web heroes.

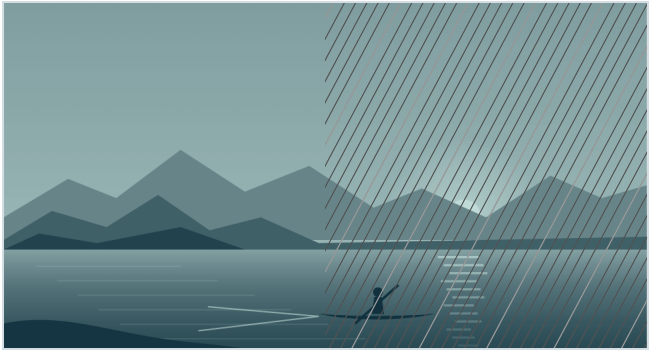
Never Under body text without a scrim.

04 Blade crop

What The image masked into the two blades, split kept open.

When One hero moment per document: cover, opener, social.

Never Crops through faces; more than one per spread.



05 Wake-line overlay

What 62° white hairlines at 30% opacity, one in six at 60%.

When Banners and openers; across up to half the frame.

Never Over faces or detail; lines thicker than 1 px.

06 Scrim for text

What Deep Current, 0% to 80% across the text side.

When Whenever type sits on an image.

Never Black scrims; more than 80%; centred text on busy areas.

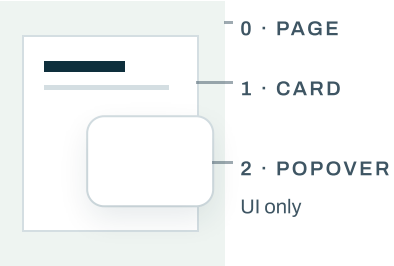
Surfaces, depth & texture

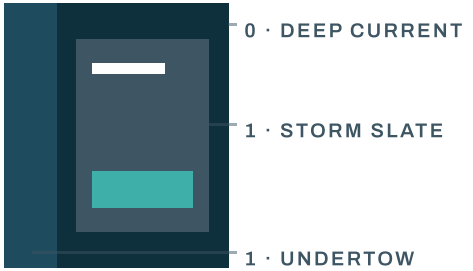
Four surfaces, built up by tone rather than shadow. Depth is a quiet fact, never a special effect.

SURFACE PALETTE

Paper white	Sea Mist	Deep Current	Undertow
#FFFFFF	#EEF4F1	#0E2F3C	#1F4B5F
Pages, cards, print stock	App canvas, panels, callouts	Covers, openers, dark UI	Raised on dark: sidebars, bands

LAYERING





Step one tone per level. Never put white on white without a Fog hairline, or two dark tones without a step.

DEPTH IN PRINT

No drop shadows in print or brand graphics. Separate with tone and a 0.5 pt hairline.

UI ELEVATION

Shadows tinted with Deep Current, never black

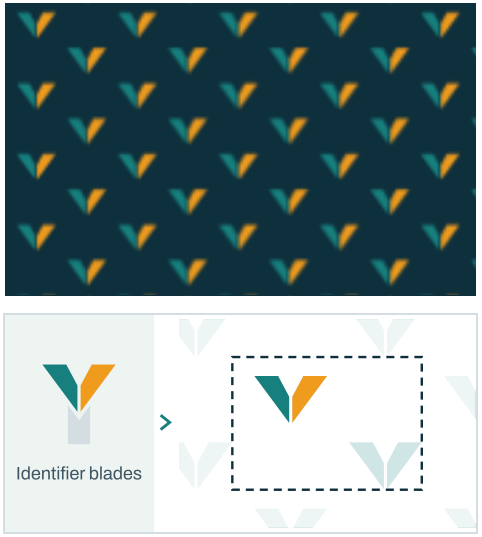
CHOOSING A PATTERN

- A Brand moments: covers, banners, packaging, gifting
- B Quiet texture: UI surfaces, margins, overlays
- C Large backdrops: reports, keynotes, dashboards

One pattern per spread or screen.

Geometric repeats

Solid shapes lifted from the marks. Each tile is built from one source shape, shown in colour; the dashed line marks the repeat.



01 Confluence

120 × 84 · half-drop · shown BRAND-DARK

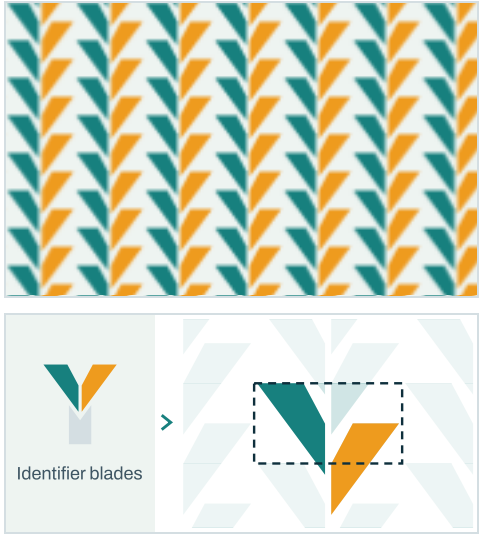
The identifier's two blades, repeated in a half-drop. Teal and saffron meet in every unit.

BEST FOR

- Social banners and profile headers
- Event backdrops and photo walls
- Deck section dividers (one per deck)



02 Paddle rhythm

96 × 52 · herringbone · shown BRAND-LIGHT

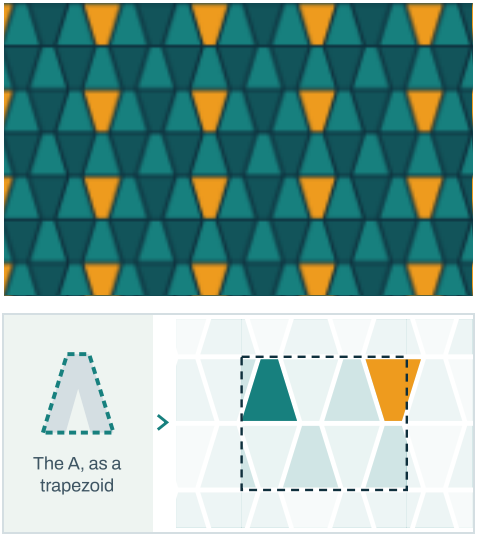
Left and right blades stack in a herringbone, held apart by the identifier's split. A kinetic supergraphic for covers and banners.

BEST FOR

- Report and proposal covers
- Hoardings, banners, large-format print
- Motion: blades glide in on the paddle ease



03 Delta

268 × 216 · interlock · shown BRAND-DARK

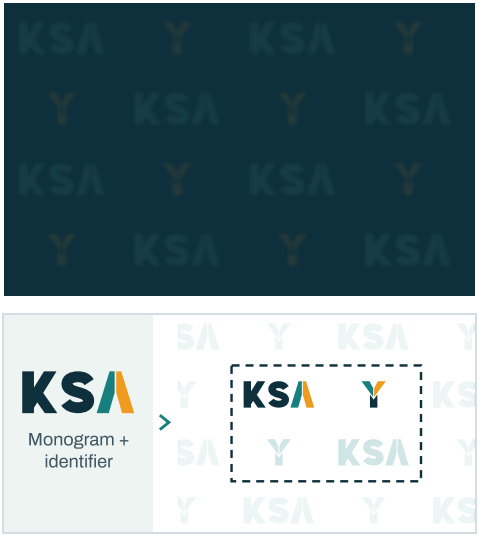
The A's trapezoid, upright and inverted, interlocks like a river delta. A structured texture for print and packaging.

BEST FOR

- Packaging, gift boxes and sleeves
- Envelope and folder linings
- Small-scale print texture on stationery



04 Monogram canvas

720 × 440 · half-drop · shown ACCENT-DARK

The KSA monogram and the identifier in a heritage half-drop. Reserved for premium moments: gifting, events, packaging, lining papers.

BEST FOR

- Gifting, tissue and lining papers
- Event lanyards, passes and invitations
- Merchandise: notebooks, totes, scarves

01 Scale, never distort

Resize tiles uniformly from the default. Never stretch, rotate or skew a repeat.

02 Keep the colour logic

Teal and saffron alternate as in the marks. No new colours inside a tile.

03 Crop on a clean edge

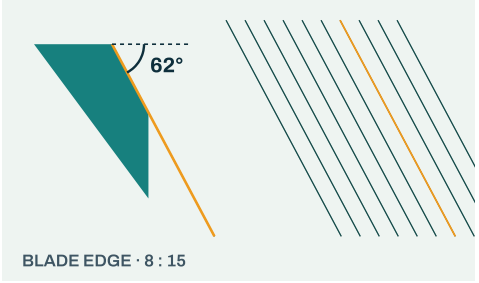
Where a repeat meets type or a panel, cut flat. Never fade or vignette it.

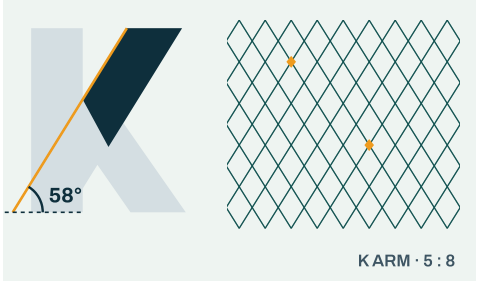
04 Logo on clear ground

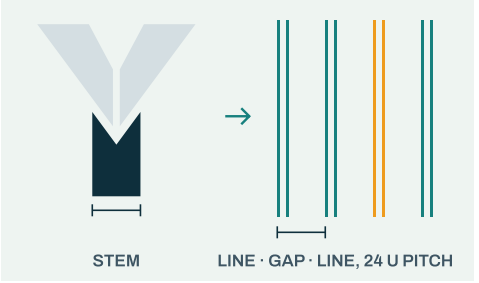
Never place the logo on a geometric repeat. Give it a solid panel.

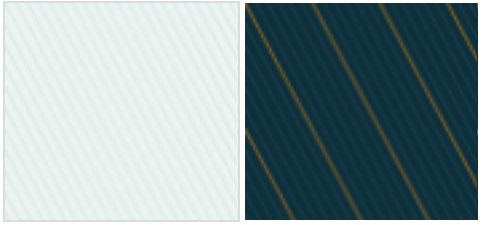
Line patterns from the favicon

Hairlines on the edges of the favicon (blade edge, split, stem) and the wordmark's K arm. Our quietest textures.









TONAL-LIGHT ACCENT-DARK

05 Wake lines

TONAL-LIGHT ACCENT-DARK

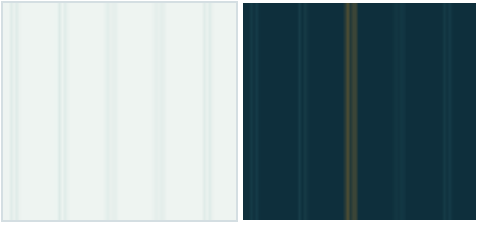
07 K-lattice

K arm, 58°

Diagonals on the K's arm cross into a lattice with saffron nodes.



TONAL-LIGHT ACCENT-DARK

08 Pinstripe

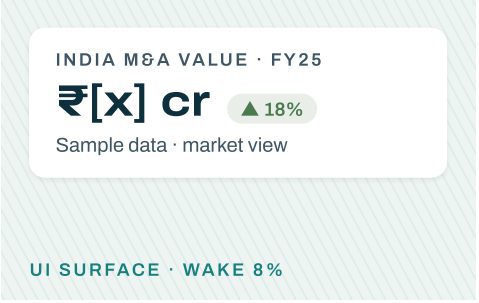
Stem + split

Line, gap, line: the stem's weight and the split's gap, tailored.

THE SUBTLE OVERLAY

Felt more than seen

Line patterns sit behind UI and text at 6–16% opacity. Above 10%, keep them clear of body copy.



6% Behind text

10% Text limit

16% Panels, UI

Hairlines: 0.5–1 px on screen, never under 0.1 mm in print. Keep the angle: never rotate a line pattern.

Atmospheric patterns

Large, slow fields of movement and depth for covers, keynotes and dashboards. All three are seamless: crop them anywhere.

09 Current

Traced from the monogram's S · shown accent-dark

Flow lines traced from the monogram's S. Calm movement for large backgrounds and thought-leadership covers.

IN USE

Report covers

Thought-leadership and annual reports. Let the saffron line fall above or below the title, never through it.

10 Soundings

Depth marks on a nautical chart · shown accent-dark

A field of soundings, like depth marks on a nautical chart. One beacon in each field. Works behind data and dashboards.

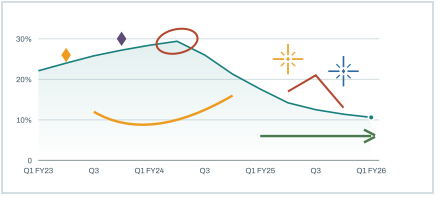
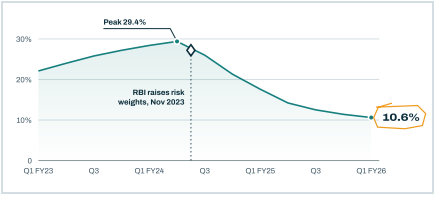
Source: RBI sectoral deployment data, FY23–FY26; KSA analysis.



Seven marks, five colours and a freehand ring: the data disappears.



Three marks, each with a label; one saffron.

RULES

- Maximum three marks per view, including the beacon.
- Strokes 1.5–2 px; 1 px for leaders and soundings only.
- Deep Current and Open Water. Saffron for one mark, once.
- Every mark carries a label. A mark never replaces data.
- Flat ends, mitred joins, straight segments. No freehand.

DEEP CURRENT OPEN WATER

Illustration style

Our illustrations are drawn, not decorated: a ruled line, a few flat planes cut from the identifier and one point of saffron. They explain an idea in one look.

SIX PRINCIPLES

Line	Deep Current. 2 px on the 24 px grid, 3 px at hero scale. Flat ends, mitred joins.
Planes	Flat, blade-shaped fills in Open Water and Spray. Planes carry no outline of their own.
Geometry	Slopes on 58° and 62° only. A horizon line anchors every scene.
Beacon	One saffron point per illustration: sun, beacon or destination.
Fade	No gradients, except the 12% → 0 Open Water fade on water.
People	No faces, hands or characters. People are silhouettes at a distance.

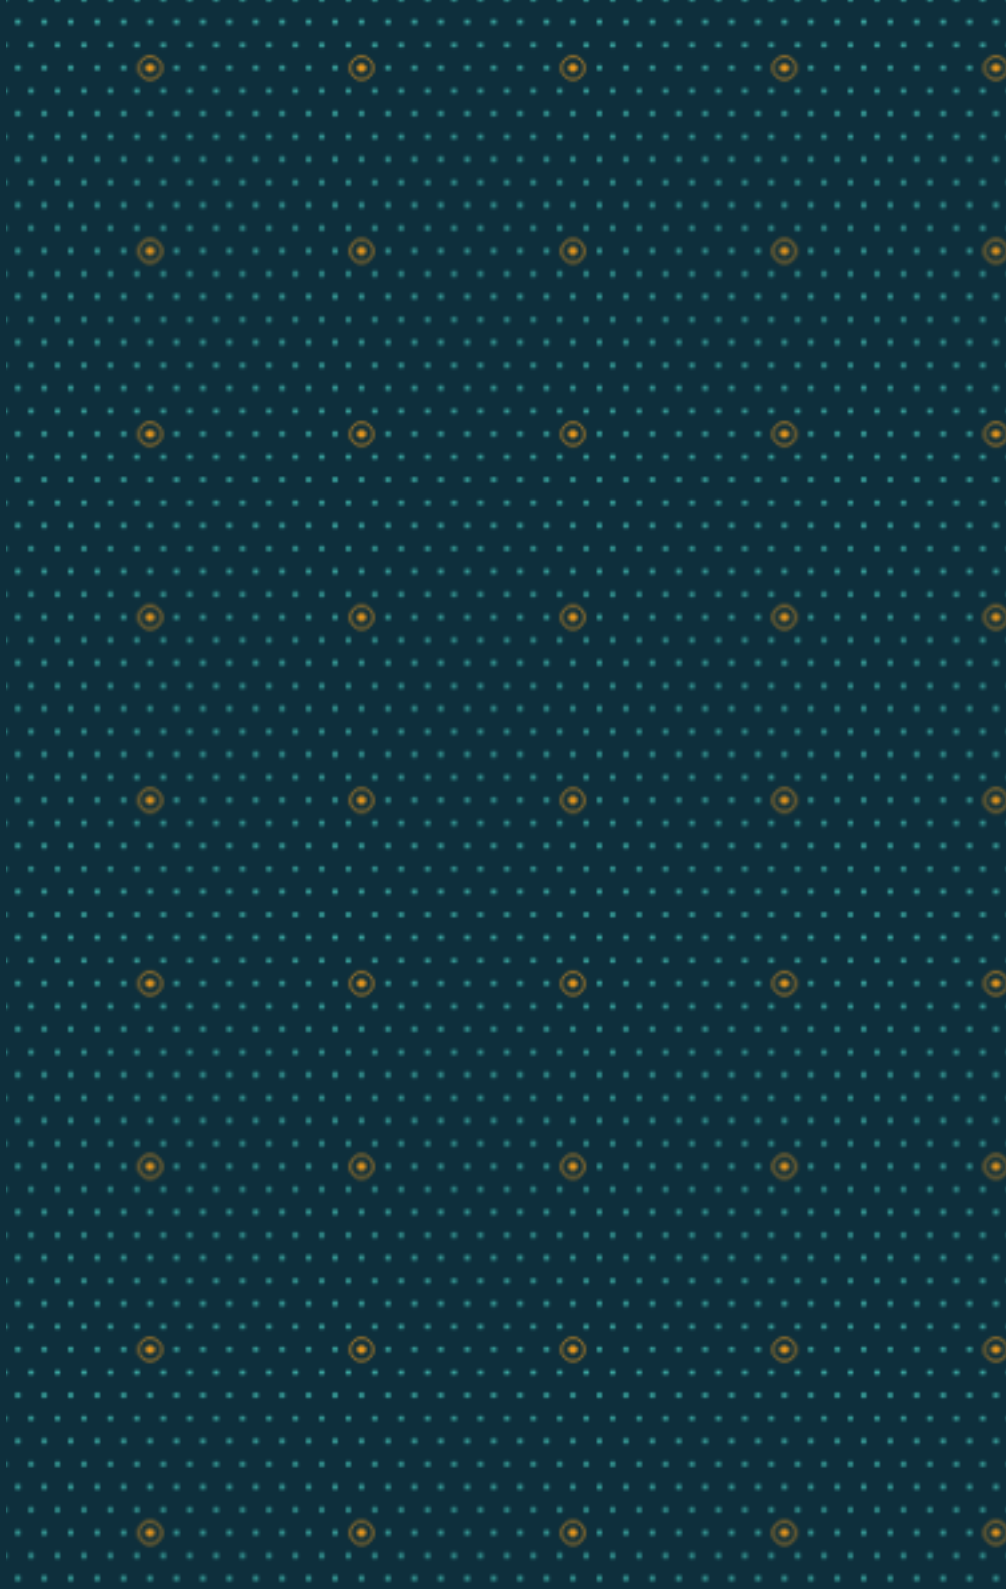
44 Data across media



One exhibit, one point

Our charts are evidence in an argument. Six principles keep them honest; eleven parts make every exhibit complete.

01 Insight-first titles
State the finding as a sentence. “Margin by year” is a label, not an insight.

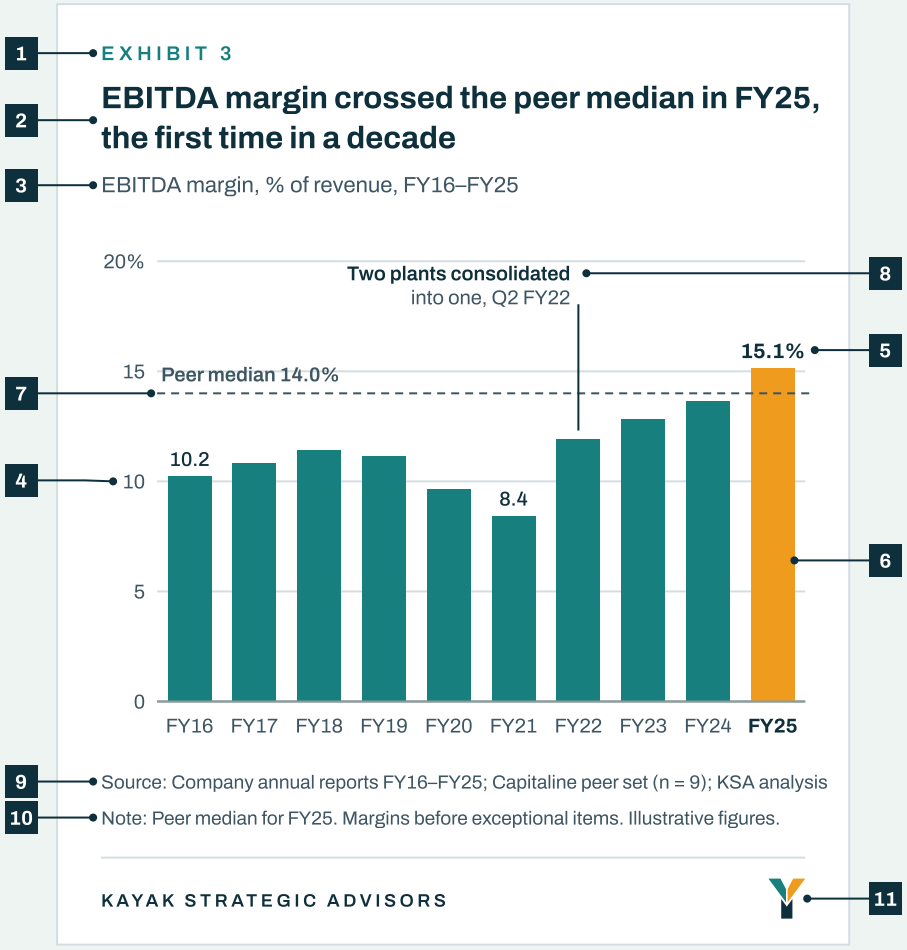
02 One beacon
One saffron mark per exhibit: the thing the headline is about. The rest is Open Water or Riverstone.

03 Calm grid
Fog gridlines, four or five ticks, no borders. The data is the darkest ink in the frame.

04 Honest scales
Bars start at zero, one axis per chart, equal spacing for equal time.

05 Label directly
Name lines at their ends and values at bar ends. Legends only when labels cannot fit.

06 Always cite the source
Every exhibit has a source line; add “KSA analysis” when we have transformed the data.



ANATOMY

1 Exhibit number
“EXHIBIT 3” in Open Water, numbered in reading order.

2 Insight headline
A full sentence stating the finding. Two lines at most.

3 Subtitle and unit
Measure, unit and period, e.g. “%, FY16–FY25”.

4 Axis
Four or five ticks, Fog gridlines, zero baseline in Riverstone.

5 Direct labels
Values at the bar end; label start, end and turning points only.

6 Highlight
One Beacon Saffron mark: what the headline is about.

7 Benchmark
1px dashed Storm Slate, always labelled with its value.

8 Annotation
Explains a turn in the data. 10px text, 1px leader.

9 Source
“Source: …; KSA analysis”. No exceptions.

10 Notes
Definitions, exclusions, rounding and data status.

11 Identifier
The Confluence Y signs off client-facing exhibits.

Colour for data

Colour in a chart has a job. Open Water carries the story, Beacon Saffron points to the one thing that matters, Riverstone holds the context.

01 Roles

Primary data path · Open Water #17807E

Treemap	Many parts of very different size, with hierarchy.	≤ 8 tiles + Other
Pie	Never. Use a donut or a sorted bar.	Not used

Consulting exhibits I

Four workhorse exhibits from strategy work. Each answers a specific question; pick the form by the question, not by habit.

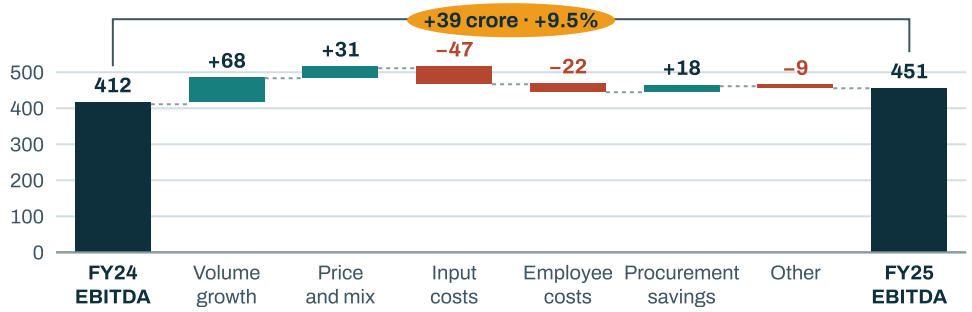
Volume and price added ₹99 crore; input and people costs took back ₹69 crore

EBITDA bridge, FY24 to FY25, ₹ crore



Source: Company management accounts; KSA analysis

Note: Rises in Open Water, falls in Red Clay, totals in Deep Current; connectors 1px Riverstone.

USE WHEN Explaining how a start value became an end value, one driver at a time.

Staples are still 58% unorganised: the largest headroom for branded players

Packaged food market by segment and player type, FY25, % of value

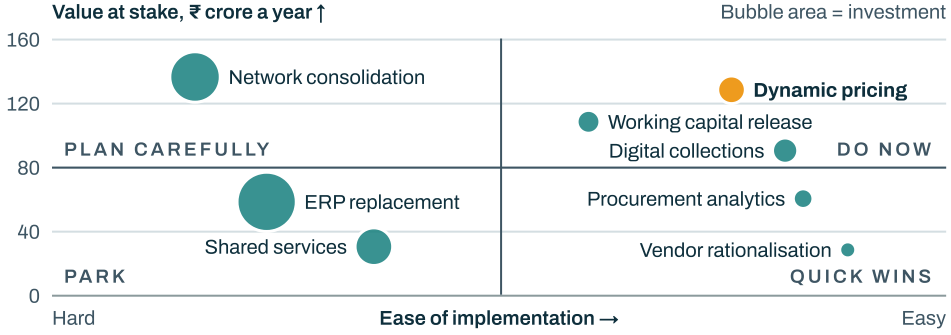
Source: Industry interviews; company filings; KSA market model

USE WHEN Both segment size and the share inside each segment matter. Max 6 × 4.

EXHIBIT 3

Of the three initiatives worth over ₹100 crore, dynamic pricing is the easiest

Initiatives by ease and annual value at stake



Source: [Client name] workshops, [Month Year]; KSA analysis

USE WHEN Ranking options on two criteria; area adds a third. Saffron = the pick.

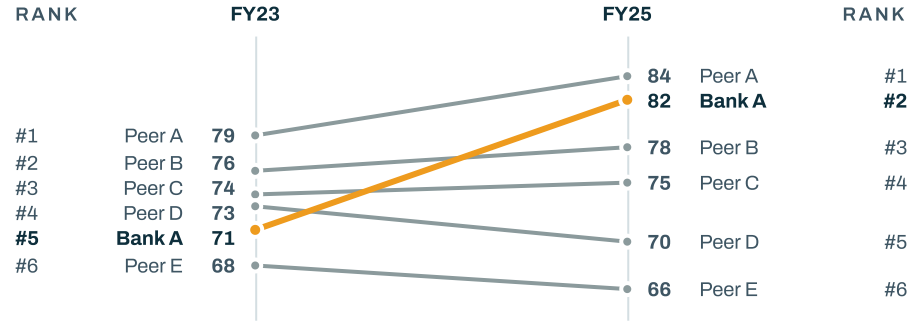
Bank A climbed from fifth to second on customer satisfaction in two years

Customer satisfaction index (0–100) and rank, private banks



Source: [Survey name], FY23 and FY25 (n = [x]); KSA analysis

USE WHEN Only the start and end matter. Max 8 lines, one in saffron.

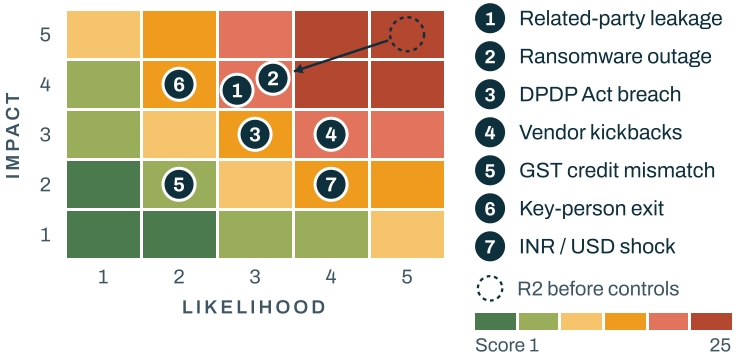
Consulting exhibits II

Five structures for risk, capability and change programmes. Each answers one question a board asks: choose the exhibit by the question, not by habit.

EXHIBIT 1 · RISK HEAT MAP

Three risks stay high even after controls

Residual risk register, likelihood × impact, each scored 1 to 5



Source: [Client name] risk register, [Month Year]; KSA analysis

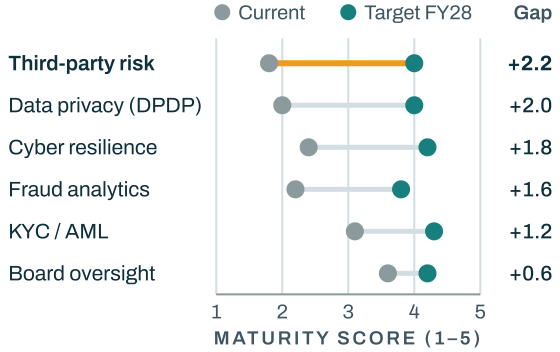
EXHIBIT 3 · DUMBBELL

Third-party risk has the widest gap

Compliance maturity, current vs target, score 1 to 5



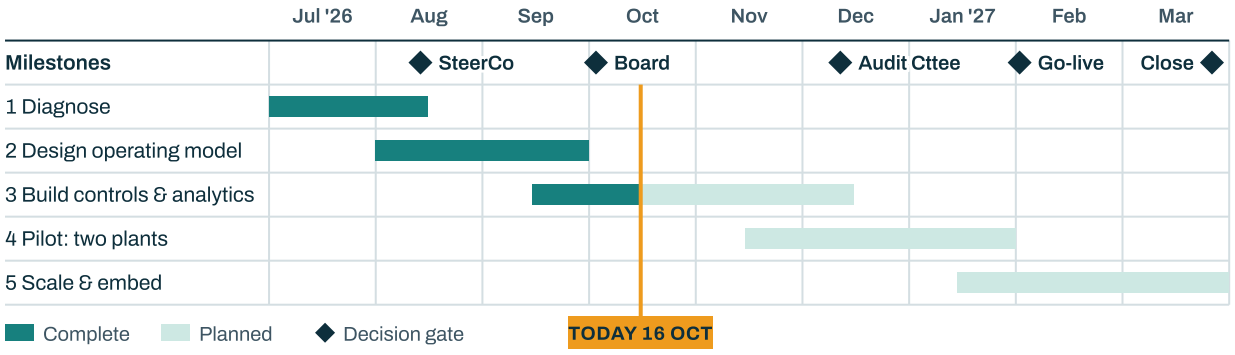
Source: KSA maturity diagnostic, [Client name], [Month Year]

USE WHEN showing a gap between two states.

EXHIBIT 4 · ROADMAP

Build is a third complete and February go-live holds

Fraud-risk programme, July 2026 to March 2027, by phase



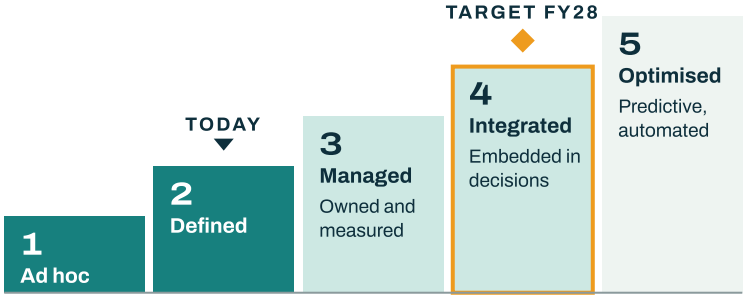
Source: [Client name] programme office, status at [date]

USE WHEN phases overlap and dated decisions matter. Always draw today; 8 rows max.

EXHIBIT 5 · MATURITY LADDER

Level 2 today; the target is level 4 by FY28

Enterprise risk maturity, five-level model



Source: KSA ERM maturity model; [Client name] self-assessment

USE WHEN the client must see where they stand and the next step.

Tables & scorecards

A table is an exhibit too. Figures line up on the decimal, units live in the header, and one row carries the message.

Name tokens by role, never by hue: color.action.primary, not teal. Components read roles only, so a theme swap is a token swap.

Muted text (3.1:1 on white) is for placeholders and meta only. Saffron is a highlight, never a surface or a text colour on light.

Client portal

KSA Client Room gives a client one calm place to follow the engagement: progress, numbers, deliverables and the people doing the work. Shown with sample data.

1 Navigation
White sidebar, 3px saffron bar on the active item. Search, alerts and account in a 64px top bar.

2 Metric cards
Context tag, value in Archivo Expanded, delta pill with a drawn triangle.

3 Engagement stepper
Done, current and next, with dates. Workstream bars carry the detail.

4 Exhibit card
Action title, unit, legend and source, like a slide. Crosshair and a Deep Current tooltip on hover.

5 Deliverables table
50px rows. Status tags pair a dot with a word, never colour alone.

Risk monitor

A dark analytics theme for long monitoring sessions, shown in Brand and Risk Monitor, a counterfeit-tracking tool. Sample data.

1. Metric cards on Storm Slate
   Values in white Archivo Expanded. On dark, delta pills switch to Lichen and Coral Flare to keep contrast.

2. Area chart
   Data path #3FB0A9, gradient 12% to 0, grid Fog at 15%. One saffron point marks the peak.

3. Risk heat map
   5 × 5 matrix on the risk ramp, Kelp Green to Red Clay. Every cell carries its count.

4. Severity alerts
   Icon, word and colour together. Rows link to the case, newest first within severity.

5. Region tiles
   Equal hexagons per state, so small states stay readable. One saffron leader.

Website

The website is where a reader first meets KSA thinking. Lead with one idea, prove it with evidence, then open the library.

1. Hero
   Deep Current with the Current pattern fading in from the right. Archivo Expanded headline, serif standfirst, two CTAs.
2. Insight cards
   Badge names the content type; each type keeps one pattern for its thumbnail.
3. Featured exhibit
   One chart a month, set like a page from a report: headline, unit, source.
4. Services row
   The six cluster icons at 28px over a hairline. Saffron marks the first.
5. Mobile web
   One column, 48px buttons, menu behind a 24px icon. Headline drops to 28/34.

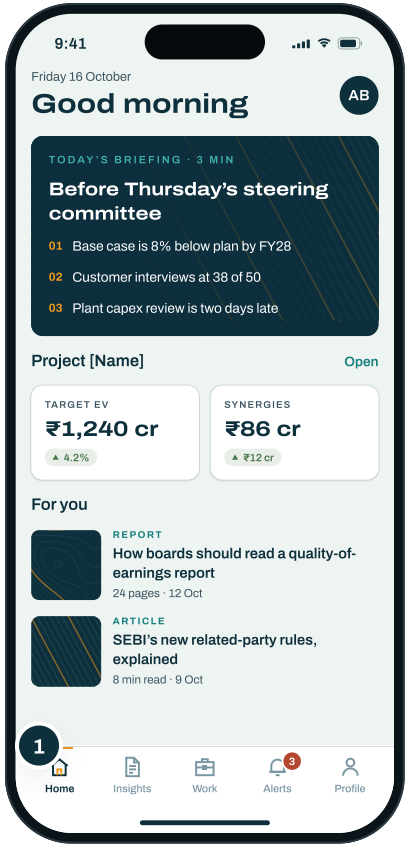
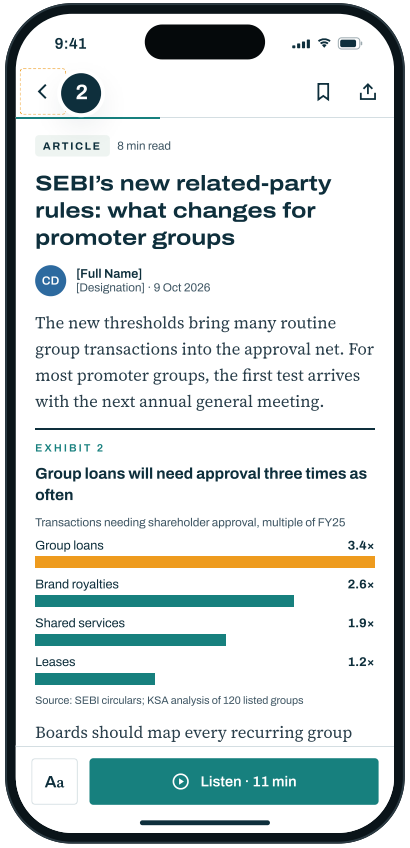
For partners and clients on the move: a morning briefing, reading, engagement status and alerts. Same tokens as the web, tuned for the thumb.



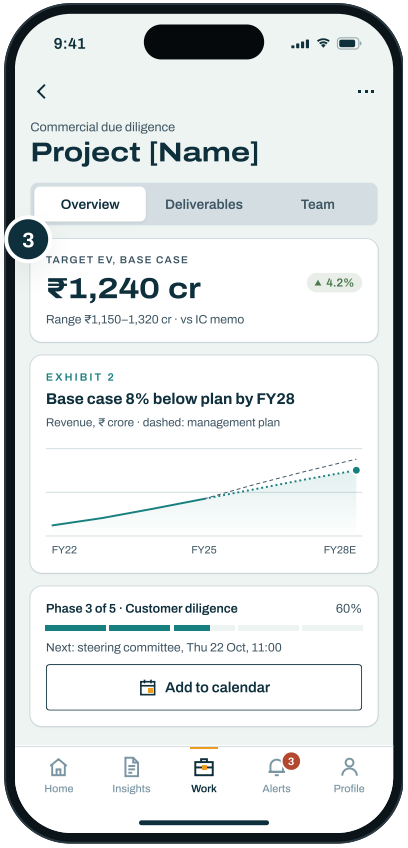
A Home · briefing

Light. One saffron idea: the briefing numbers.



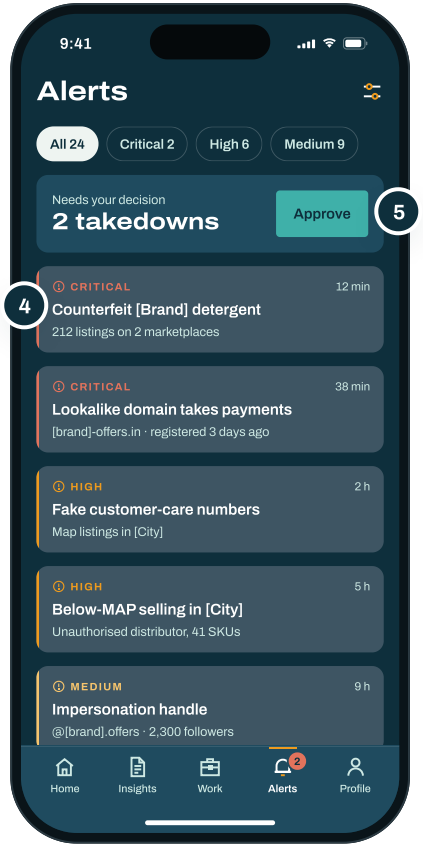
B Insight reader

Serif body 17/27. Exhibits keep their anatomy.



C Engagement dashboard

KPI, exhibit and next step in one scroll.



D Alerts

Dark theme. Severity by icon, word and edge.

1 Tab bar
Five tabs, 24px icons with labels. Active: Deep Current icon, saffron accent and a 2px saffron bar.

2 48px targets
Every tappable thing is at least 48 × 48, even when the icon is 24.

3 12px cards
Mobile cards, sheets and modals use radius 12; buttons stay at 4 and 48 high.

4 Dark alerts
Storm Slate cards on Deep Current. Severity colour on the left edge, never alone.

5 One primary action
A single full-width or right-aligned action per screen, in thumb reach.

Motion

Motion moves like a paddle stroke: a firm catch, then a long glide. Four tokens cover every case.

A THE PADDLE STROKE

- Move only to explain: where something came from, where it went, what changed.
- Firm start, gliding finish: curves accelerate hard and settle long. No bounce, no overshoot.
- Fast in, faster out. Nothing in the interface takes longer than 480ms.
- One moving idea per moment; the rest of the page holds still.

- Count-ups show the final figure at once.
- Loaders stay static with a text label; no loop runs over 5s.

Accessibility & inclusion

RULES

- One message per slide. The title says it as a full sentence; read the titles alone and the story holds.
- Titles take one or two lines and never shrink below 40px. Body text never goes below 20px: split the slide instead.
- Two patterns per deck at most: one for cover and closing, one for section dividers.
- One saffron highlight per slide. Every exhibit carries a source line in the source zone.
- A tracker names the section top left; the identifier and page number close every content slide.

RULES

- Body sits on a 12 pt baseline; every element snaps to it.
- One idea per spread. The pull quote is a line from the text, never a new claim.
- One pattern per report: the cover's, reused on the opener and back cover.
- Exhibits keep their anatomy: number, headline, unit, source.
- Body never below 9 pt, notes and sources never below 7 pt. Sidebars sit in Sea Mist, four columns wide.

Merchandise & gifting

A small range, made to be kept. The mark stays quiet and the material does the talking: a gift should feel chosen, not branded.

A UNDERSTATED

- Monogram or identifier on most pieces. The full logo only on packaging and printed matter.
- Tone on tone first: deboss, engrave, embroider. One mark per piece, placed where a maker would sign.

B QUALITY OVER QUANTITY

- Fewer, better things that last three years of daily use. No novelties, no single-use plastic.
- Approve a pre-production sample of every piece before the order is placed.

C APPROVED COLOURWAYS

A WHO APPROVES

Brand lead	Owns the register; approves items, proofs, samples
Managing Partner	Signs off new item families and gifting
Office admin	Holds stock; reorders at the set level

B REQUESTING A NEW ITEM

01 Send the brand request form: item, purpose, quantity, date needed.

02 Brand lead checks it against these guidelines and issues a code.

03 Supplier proof and pre-production sample approved in writing.

04 Item, artwork and file reference added to the register before ordering.

C VERSION & REVIEW

- Reviewed each April and October, and whenever these guidelines change.
- A changed item raises the minor version (1.1); a new item family raises the major (2.0).
- Retired items stay on as Withdrawn; nothing is deleted.

Reception

The first room a client sees. One lit logo on Deep Current, honest materials and a clear desk: calm, warm and unmistakably ours.

MATERIALS PALETTE

Oak slats
Natural oak, matt lacquer. 40 mm slats, 20 mm gaps.

Honed stone
Dholpur beige or Jaisalmer, honed. Desk and floor.

Deep Current
Matt emulsion matched to #0E2F3C. Feature wall.

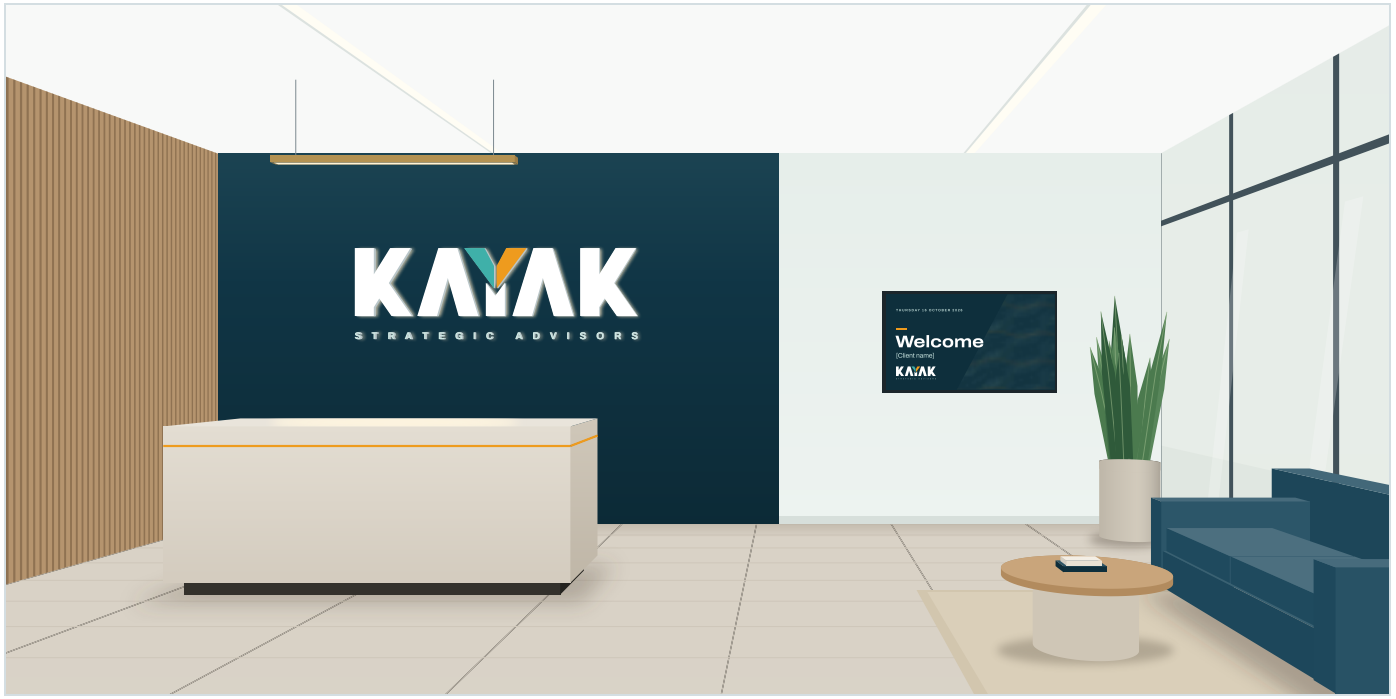
Brass & saffron
Brushed brass light; 6 mm Beacon Saffron inlay.

Undertow wool
Wool bouclé or felt, #1F4B5F. Seating.

Sea Mist walls
Matt emulsion matched to #EEF4F1.

RULES

- One logo per wall, and one per sightline.
- Keep 2X clear space around the logo: no art, screens or signage inside it.
- Halo-light the logo at 3000K. No coloured, flashing or animated light.
- No pattern behind the logo. Patterns go on screens, glass or a second wall.

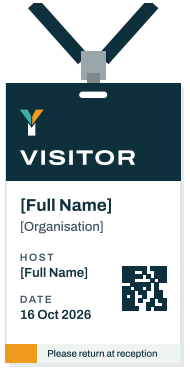


A Reception, visual reference. Feature wall, halo-lit built-up logo, stone desk with saffron inlay. For direction only; detailed by the fit-out architect

B LOGO WALL

Elevation, mm. Logo centred on the wall, CL 2150 above floor. Built-up letters halo-lit.

C VISITOR BADGE



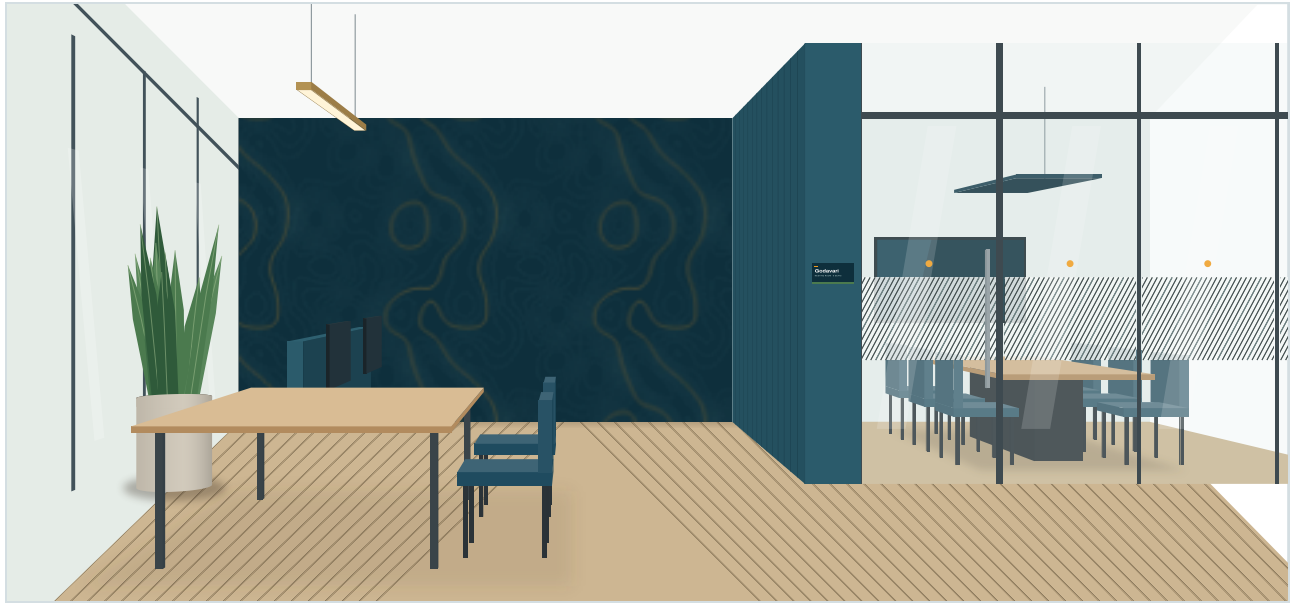
CR80 card, 54 × 86 mm, on a Deep Current lanyard.

D WELCOME SCREEN

1920 × 1080. 96 px margins (dashed). Pattern in a 62° blade panel, never behind type.

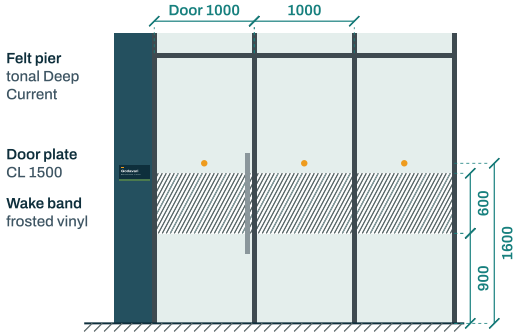
Office interiors

Quiet rooms, one strong idea each. Pattern lives on walls and glass, colour comes from materials, and every room is named for a river.



A Studio and Godavari meeting room. Chart contours feature wall, felt pier, Wake-line manifestation.

B GLASS MANIFESTATION



RULES

- Patterns go on walls or glass, never on furniture or upholstery.
- One feature wall per room; the rest stay Sea Mist.
- Acoustic panels in tonal Deep Current only.
- Manifest all glass: Wake band 900 to 1500, saffron dot at 1600.

C LIBRARY

Quiet zone: oak shelving wall, felt panels, warm task light.

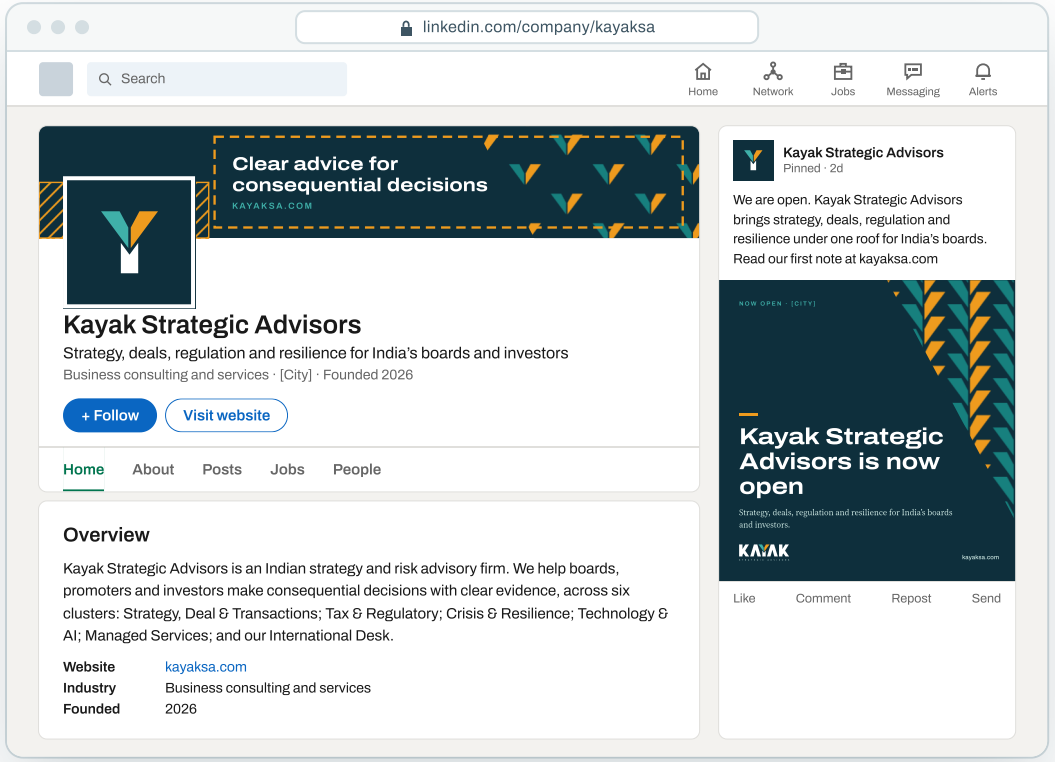
LinkedIn

Our main channel. Insight first, firm news second, every post on the system grid. Staff carry the same banner so the firm reads as one voice.



01 Company page

Banner 1128 × 191: type inside the dashed zone, clear of the logo (hatched). Logo 400 × 400.

02 Document carousel · 1080 × 1350 PDF

Five slides: cover, three ideas, one call to action. One idea per slide.

03 Feed posts · 1080 × 1350

Portrait wins more of the feed. Use it for insight, data and quotes.

04 Square · 1200 × 1200

Firm news, hiring, events.

05 Article cover · 1920 × 1080

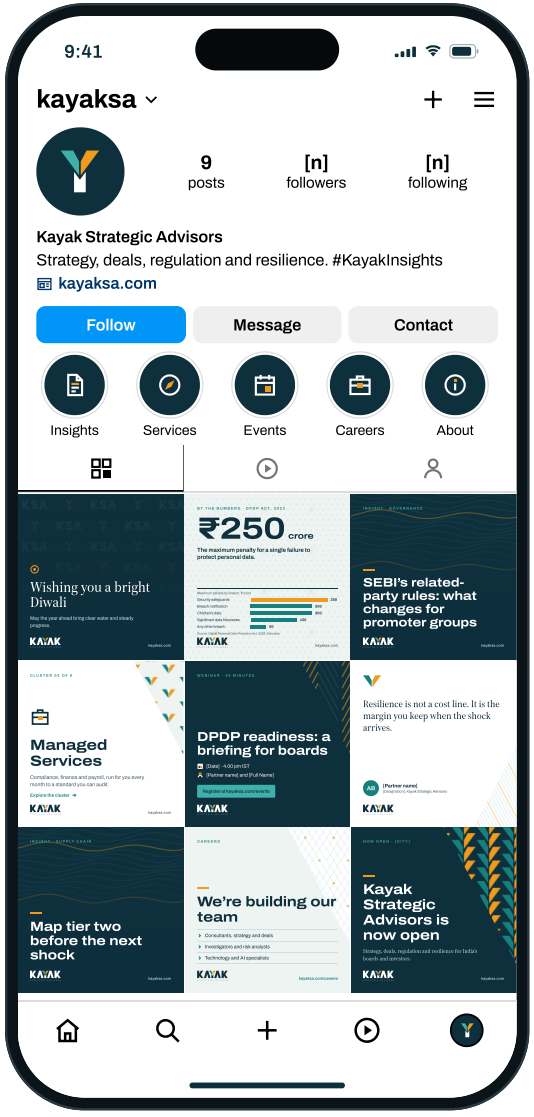
Pattern from the right, headline left.

06 Employee banner · 1584 × 396

For staff profiles. Keep type right of the photo zone (hatched).

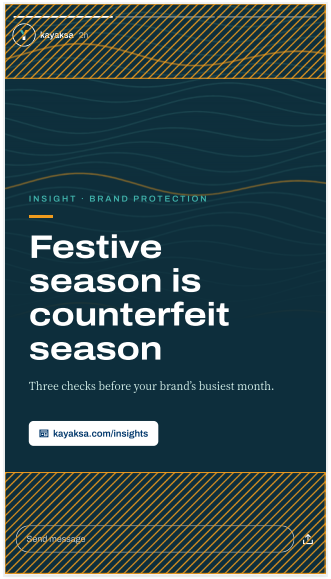
Instagram

A calm grid that alternates dark and light, stories that inform in one screen, and one link: kayaksa.com. No filters, no stock photography.

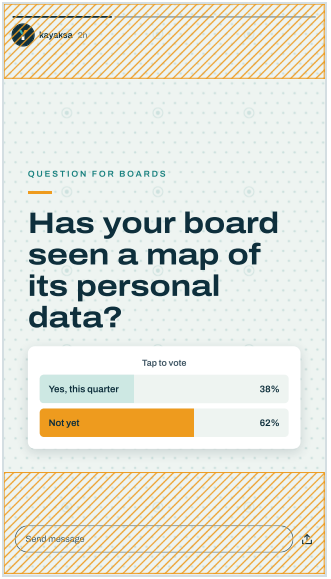


01 Profile · @kayaksa

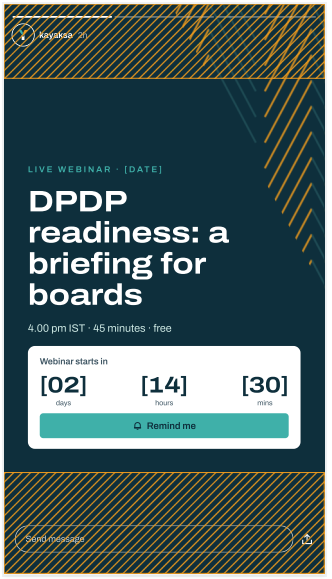
Checkerboard rhythm, icon highlights, link in bio.



02 Story · insight



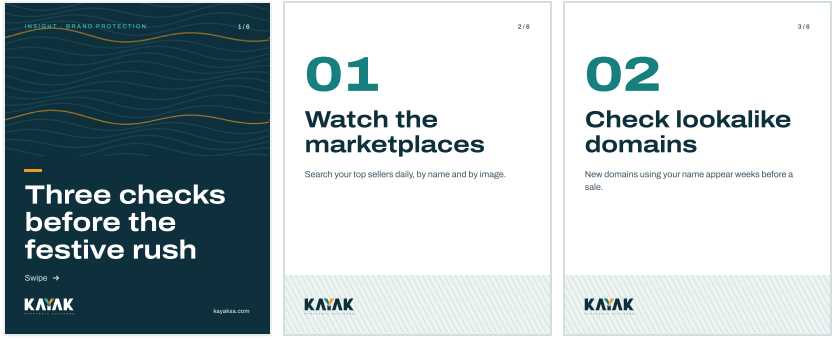
03 Story · question



04 Story · event

05 Reel cover

1080 × 1920. Hatched: keep 250 px top and 340 px bottom clear of type. Reel covers keep the title in the centre square.



06 Carousel · 1080 × 1350

Cover, then one point per slide; up to ten.

HIGHLIGHT COVERS

Insights · Services · Events · Careers · About

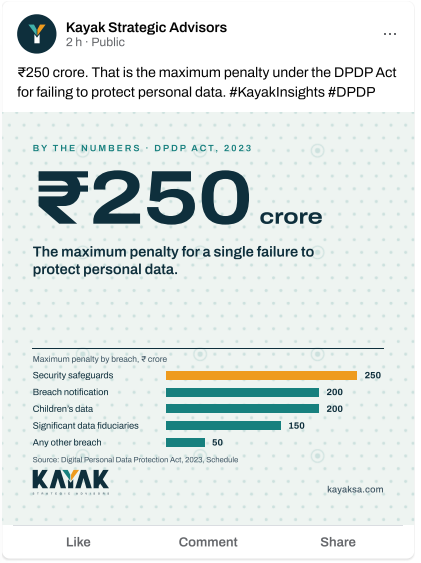
- Type stays inside the centre square, so a post survives any grid crop.
- Stories: one idea, one sticker, one link.
- Highlights: a white icon with its saffron accent on Deep Current.
- Captions open with the insight; three hashtags at most.

Facebook

For events, community and paid reach. The page carries the same cover idea as LinkedIn, and every ad runs as one creative in three shapes.

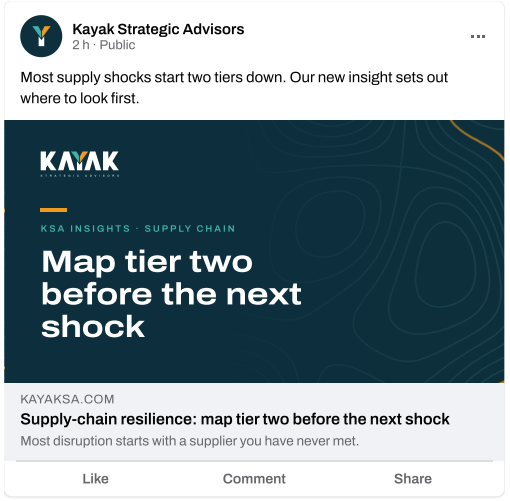
01 Page · cover 1640 × 624, profile 720 × 720

Mobile crops to the centre 1110 (dashed). Keep the profile zone (hatched) clear.



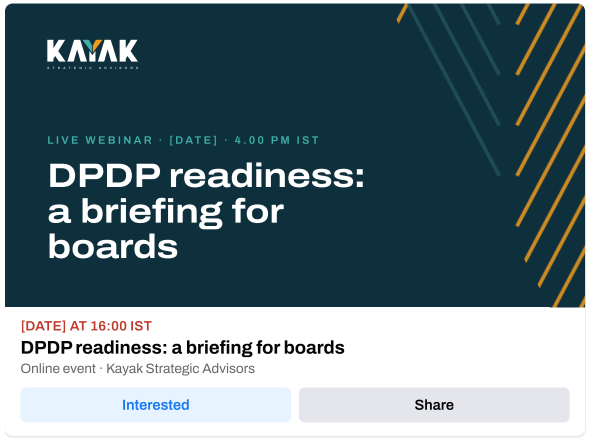
02 Feed post · 1080 × 1080

Data card; caption leads with the number.



03 Link post · 1200 × 628

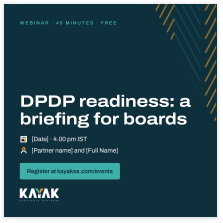
Insight preview from kayaksa.com.



04 Event cover · 1920 × 1005

Date and time in type, logo top left.

05 · WEBINAR AD SET



1:1
Feed, right column

4:5
Feed, mobile

9:16
Stories, Reels

PLATFORM RULES

- Cover type and logo sit inside the centre 1110 px; mobile crops the sides.
- One creative, three shapes: 1:1, 4:5 and 9:16. Keep text to a fifth of the image.
- Link posts let the preview carry the image. Never paste a URL into the picture.
- Events: date and time in the copy as well as on the cover.
- Reply to comments within one working day, in the firm's voice.

Email templates

REGULATORY UPDATE · DATA PROTECTION

The DPDP Rules are in force. What boards should do first

The compliance clock has started. Most of the work is not legal drafting but knowing your own data. Three steps for this quarter:

1. Map where personal data enters, moves through and leaves the business.
2. Name one owner for breach response and rehearse the first 72 hours.
3. Rewrite consent notices in plain language, in English and the languages your customers read.

KAYAK STRATEGIC ADVISORS

Kayak Strategic Advisors is now open

A strategy and risk advisory firm for Indian boards, founders and investors.

Dear [First name],

Today we open the doors of Kayak Strategic Advisors. We started the firm because decisions in India are getting harder: more regulation, faster markets, closer scrutiny. Boards need advice that is independent, evidence-led and plain-spoken.

We will publish what we learn, every month, for free. We hope you will read it, argue with it and tell us what to look at next.

[Full Name]
[Designation], Kayak Strategic Advisors

How we work

Independent	Evidence first	Plain English
We sell advice and nothing else, so it answers only to the facts.	Every view is built on data, documents and the people closest to it.	Short notes, clear exhibits and a recommendation you can act on.

What we do: six clusters

- Strategy, Deal & Transactions
- Tax & Regulatory
- Crisis & Resilience
- Technology & AI
- Managed Services
- International Desk
